Dear Friends,

We hope this holiday newsletter finds you well. It has certainly been a tumultuous time of late, but things do seem to be improving, so we can all look forward to that.

To keep you up to date, we have a few staff changes to note: Brenda & Colleen have both had to step away from the office to attend to family medical issues, and we wish them -- and their families -- our best.

I'd like to introduce you to our newest employee in the Delaware office, Tonya Agostino. With over 20 years experience in law and finances, having worked with Edward Jones Financial and several other law firms in both the United States and Italy, she'll be handling Estate Administration for both our Maryland and Delaware clients.

Also, effective immediately, we are changing all of our respective staff email addresses from [first name]@RobbertLaw.com to [first name]@ChesapeakeLegalCounsel.com. Please update your address book, and apologies in advance for any confusion this might cause!

Finally, a reminder that the office will be closed on Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve so that our dedicated team all have time to relax and celebrate with their loved ones.

As always, if you, your friends or family have any questions, we would be happy to hear from you; we sincerely appreciate your business and your referrals.

Regards,
John F. Robbert

What Does "Bah, Humbug!" Actually Mean?

In Charles Dickens's 1843 story A Christmas Carol, Ebenezer Scrooge exclaims "Bah! Humbug!" in reference to Christmas. As he famously hates the holiday, it's easy to assume that "Humbug!" is just an expression used to convey dislike for...
