

Chesapeake Currents

Volume 05, Issue 04

June 28, 2022

Greetings!

As Chesapeake Legal Counsel approaches being in business for 30 years (originally known as Law Offices of John F. Robbert), I'm delighted to share that I have now been a lawyer for 50 years! Late last month I even had the pleasure of attending my 50th reunion at Tulane University Law School in my hometown of New Orleans. While we were there I also got to visit some family, and return to one of my favorite places, the Gardens at City Park. I've included a few pics from my visit below.

Thanks to all the referrals from clients and colleagues like you, we've needed to expand our staff again, so I'd like to introduce you to the newest member, Sheena Shrum. Sheena is joining us as a Legal Assistant, and you can read all about her below.

Next, I want to share several recent blog posts which deal with the various factors a client should consider when naming someone or something (an entity) to serve as trustee of a trust.

And finally, a reminder that the office will be closed on Monday, July 4th for observance of Independence Day.

As always, if you, your friends, or family have any questions, we would be happy to hear from you; we sincerely appreciate your business and your referrals.

Regards,
John F. Robbert

Sheena Shrum

Sheena recently moved to the Eastern Shore, after attending West Virginia Junior College where she received her Legal Office Assisting Diploma and Degree in 2021. She is very happy to be a part of the legal team here and excited to start off her dream of a career in the legal field. In her spare time she plays the piano and bass. Family time is also one of the most important parts of her life, and spending time with family drives her to be who she is today.
