Now in business for 30 years!

Hello Brad, and welcome to the new year!

I certainly hope you had a wonderful holiday season. My wife Jane and I took some time to visit family in my hometown of New Orleans for Christmas, and the food is still just as good as I remember it being (from my last visit)! A few pics are included below, but sorry in advance if they make you hungry.

As a belated gift of sorts, I thought today we'd share these recent blog posts from our website: Multiple methods to help eliminate Junk Mail & Phone Calls and 11 Things You Can Do Online Via the Social Security Website. I hope you find them as informative and helpful as I did.

If you're one of our readers who pays close attention, you might have noticed under the Important Dates column that our extremely popular Client Appreciation Seminars are returning in March. We're still working out the specific dates, times, and locations, but you can click here to be notified as soon as that information is confirmed.

One last thing: do you mind if I ask for a belated Christmas gift from you? The majority of our new business comes from online searches and having more 5 star reviews is paramount. Would you mind

Multiple methods to help eliminate Junk Mail & Phone Calls

No one likes the overwhelming amount of junk mail and SPAM phone calls which we all receive on a daily basis, so we've put together this list of (mostly) free services to help eliminate it. Just...

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Social Security website. At the top is a dark blue header bar with the "Social Security" logo on the left and "Benefits" and "Medicare" dropdown menus on the right. The main content area has a light gray background. It features a large text callout: "Create your personal my Social Security account today". Below this is a paragraph of text explaining the benefits of creating a my Social Security account. At the bottom of the main area are two blue buttons: "Create an Account" and "Sign In". At the very bottom of the page, there is a small link "Finish Setting Up Your Account".

11 Things You Can Do Online Via the Social Security Website

The Social Security Administration (SSA) website hosts a wealth of online tools that offer you convenient access to benefits information. To make the most of these tools, simply create a my Social...
