Chesapeake Currents

Volume 06, Issue 06

February 22, 2024

Now in business for 31 years!

Hello Brad,,

Only the second month into the new year and we've already got lots of exciting things going on. To start, please join me in welcoming the newest addition to our team, associate attorney Daniel Huestis. You can read more about him below.

In the last issue I mentioned that Client Appreciation Seminars were returning, and we now have confirmed dates and times; the details and registration links are further down.

I read a fascinating article recently in The Washington Post titled The Swedes know the secret to happiness: You are not your stuff. I'm sharing the link to the full article because the first paragraph definitely got my attention: "When my mom died last year, she left a will — unlike more than half of Americans. It was a small mercy because we could deal with our grief without lawyers or probate courts. Her belongings were another matter."

There are also two other articles, one on the importance of Long Term Care planning, and another on knowing when to intervene with Elderly Parents.

And to wrap things up, here's another dad

Meet new associate attorney Daniel Huestis

Daniel, or “Dan” to his clients and friends, began his legal journey as a law clerk with several firms in Utah while attending J. Reuben Clark School of Law, with a particular focus on Family Law, Civil Litigation, Mediation, and Criminal Defense. After graduating in 2018, he came to Delaware and entered private practice with Hudson, Jones, Jaywork & Fisher, LLC in Dover. While there, Dan fell in love with the unique challenges and creative solutions found in the fields of Estate Planning, Probate and Trust Administration. Coming to Chesapeake Legal Counsel in January 2024, Dan is excited to dedicate his time and talent to help clients reach their lifetime goals and protect their legacies.

Dan is originally from a large family on a dairy farm in the Green Mountain State. After graduating high school in the Champlain Valley, Dan went to work in the Tualatin Valley, before serving as an ecclesiastical missionary for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints along the Mississippi River. After two years of service, Dan then attended Brigham Young University where he met his eternal companion Rachel, a Delaware/Maryland native. Together they have welcomed home many additions to their growing family. With the free time he can find, Dan enjoys an eclectic mix of activities, ranging from service in his church to ballroom dancing, motorcycle riding, and plenty in between.

FREE SEMINAR ON ESTATE PLANNING

Join us for our ever-popular Client Appreciation Seminar, our first live seminar since the pandemic. We'll review changes in the law, issues to be aware of and how they might affect your current documents. Learn a little, learn a lot, and have an opportunity to ask questions.

Refreshments will be provided, and this is open to current clients, their families and friends, as well as to anyone who is not a client — but wishes they were. All are welcome.
